

Diane Demetre

Long Bio

Over the past thirty years, award-winning business leader, leadership and mindset keynote speaker, executive leadership coach, mentor and author, Diane Demetre has helped countless people master their mindset, energy, and skills to become leaders in their lives, businesses, and organisations.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed a trail into the entertainment industry in radio, television, and on stage, before moving into various roles in the corporate world.

She has owned and operated 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, leading them to multi-million-dollar success.

Awarded 2019 SBAA International Women's Day Leader Award for Leadership in the Entertainment, Creative Arts and Media Industry, she is a powerhouse speaker who will show you how to think, feel and act differently and become a Luminary Leader who dares to shine.

Short Bio

Over the past thirty years, award-winning business leader, leadership and mindset keynote speaker, executive leadership coach, mentor and author, Diane Demetre has helped countless people master their mindset, energy, and skills to become leaders in their lives, businesses, and organisations.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed a trail into the entertainment industry. She has owned and operated 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, leading them to multi-million-dollar success.

Awarded 2019 SBAA International Women's Day Leadership Award, she is a powerhouse speaker who will show you how to think, feel and act differently and become a Luminary Leader who dares to shine.