Speaking Introduction

Cut the Crap – You Can't Lead Like That!

Our next speaker is a leadership and mindset expert who knows first-hand the challenge of leading diverse teams in high-pressure situations on tight deadlines, especially through crisis.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed a trail into the entertainment industry in radio, television, and on stage, before moving into various roles in the corporate world.

She has owned 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, where even cyclones, corrupt governments, fleet groundings and union interference couldn't stop her from leading these businesses to multi-million-dollar success.

An award-winning author and business leader, she is going to tell us why we must cut the crap; and instead Dare to Shine as leaders who think, feel, and act differently.

Please welcome a speaker you're unlikely to forget, Ladies and Gentlemen, your Leadership Luminator. . . Diane Demetre
