

DIANE DEMETRE
DARE TO SHINE

Diane Demetre

Long Bio

Over the past 40+ years, award-winning business leader, leadership and mindset keynote speaker, executive leadership coach, consultant and author, Diane Demetre has helped countless people master their mindset, energy, and skills to become leaders in their lives, businesses, and organizations.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed her way into the entertainment industry in radio, television, and on stage, after which she consulted in leading executive roles.

She has owned and operated 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, and was recently awarded an International Women's Day Leader Award for Leadership in the Entertainment, Creative Arts and Media Industry.

A woman who believes we need to fear less and dare more, Diane is a powerhouse speaker who will show you how to think, feel and act differently and become a Luminary Leader who dares to shine.

Short Bio

Over the past 40+ years, award-winning business leader, leadership and mindset keynote speaker, executive leadership coach, consultant and author, Diane Demetre has helped countless people master their mindset, energy, and skills.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed her way into the entertainment industry and then into the corporate sector. She has owned and operated 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, and was recently awarded an International Women's Day Leadership Award.

A woman who believes we need to fear less and dare more, Diane is a powerhouse speaker who will show you how to think, feel and act differently and become a Luminary Leader who dares to shine.