Speaking Introduction

Today, (tonight) we have a leadership and mindset expert with an extraordinary life story. She knows first-hand the challenge of leadership, and why as leaders, we're sometimes our own worst enemy.

She will dare us to think, feel and act differently to become leaders who dare to lead differently and light the way to success.

Her diverse leadership background began as an educator before she blazed her way into the entertainment industry after which she consulted in leading executive roles.

An award-winning business leader and author, she has owned 2 multi-award-winning businesses, here and overseas, and it is this exceptional real-world experience she shares with us today (tonight). She is a woman who Fears Less and Dares More.

Ladies and Gentlemen, please welcome the creator of Luminary Leaders . . . Diane Demetre
